Workshop on Issues and Initiatives of MSME Sector (Department of Economics)

The Department of Economics organized an enlightening workshop on Issues and Initiative of MSME Sector on 25th July 2019. Dr. Nitesh Dhawan; Assistant commissioner, Department of Handlooms and textiles, government of Uttar Pradesh graced the event with his presence as the resource person. The venue of the program was lecture hall 33. The workshop started at around 12pm.

Dr Dhawan, immensely experienced in the field of industrial working and merchandise, enlightened the audience with his experience and knowledge and the whole audience was attentive to the speech. As gathered from the audience opinion, the audience gained a lot of insight about the working of MSME sector ; the challenges they commonly face and prospects of growth and development of MSME sector in Uttar Pradesh region and on national level as well.

The event was hosted by Dr. Vandana Dwivedi of the department of Economics, P.P.N (PG) college. The workshop was jointly inaugurated by the chief guest and resource person Dr Nitesh Dhawan and Dr I.J. Singh, Principal, P.P.N. College. The introductory speech was given by Dr R.K. Dixit. Dr Vivek Singh gave a thanks note. Dr Alka Asthana, Mr lalit Maurya and other faculty members also presented their views in short. The workshop was highly engaging and encouraging for students. A respective response collected by the end of the event was also very positive. 60 students of Economics and other departments attended the workshop.

Dr. Nitesh Dhawan made the event very interactive and ensured that all the students remained attentive and their queries and concerns were answered in detail. Dr. Dhawan assured that he would extend full support and assistance in the research field of the campus.
