

Pt. Prithi Nath (PG) College, Kanpur

96/12, Mahatma Gandhi Marg, District Kanpur Nagar- 208001

•Telefax: (0512)2361924 • Mob.: 8707538344 •

•Website: www.ppncollege.org • email: ppncollegekanpur@gmail.com •

Report on Alumni meet “Yaadon ki Mehfil” 2025

Organized by Alumni Association, P.P.N. (P.G.) College

Date: June 1, 2025

Venue: B.S. Hajeley Auditorium

Occasion: Alumni Meet “Yaadon Ki Mehfil” 2025

The Alumni Association of Pt. Prithi Nath (P.G.) College Kanpur successfully organized its annual Alumni Meet "Yaadon ki Mehfil" on June 01, 2025, at the B.S. Hajeley Auditorium within the college campus. The event witnessed an overwhelming success, and enthusiastic togetherness of around 60 distinguished alumni's from diverse batches and representing various professional sectors including technology, healthcare, finance, education, and entrepreneurship. Upon arrival, alumni were warmly greeted by dedicated student volunteers by providing flower bouquet and applying tilak. The event was formally inaugurated by our honourable Principal Prof. Anoop Kumar Singh and distinguished chief guests including, Prof. Arun Kumar Dixit (Principal of D.A.V. College Kanpur), Shree Rajiv Sharma (Retired I.A.S.) and Prof. S.S.S. Kushwaha (Retired Faculty, P.P.N. (P.G.) College Kanpur). Also, the presence of our distinguished alumni's from various professional sectors along with Shree Satish Nigam (Former Member of Legislative Assembly, Kalyanpur, Kanpur, Uttar Pradesh) and Padmashree awardee shree Ashok Shahu added prestige and significance to the gathering, reflecting the college's strong community connections and institutional reputation.

Prof. Anoop Kumar Singh, Principal of P.P.N. (P.G.) College Kanpur, delivered a heartfelt welcome address to all distinguished alumni, emphasizing that the Alumni Meet "Yaadon ki Mehfil " was designed to foster a strong sense of community among former students, provide valuable networking opportunities, and celebrate the remarkable achievements and milestones of their alma mater. The event was expertly coordinated by Convenor Professor Abha Singh, who welcomed the alumni and guests while sharing her insights on the immense value and importance of alumni gatherings. She was accompanied by Co-convenor Dr. Anoop Kumar Gupta, Programme Secretary Prof. Arti Vishnoi, Programme Co-secretary Ms. Shrasti Katiyar and Treasurer Mr. Rajendra Kureel. The event featured the cultural event followed by keynote addresses covering innovation and entrepreneurship, industry trends and future opportunities, and work-life balance strategies, where successful alumni entrepreneurs and senior professionals shared their experiences and expertise.

The event achieved remarkable outcomes in terms of professional networking, mentorship initiatives, and institutional support. Attendees provided overwhelmingly positive feedback, expressing strong likelihood to attend future events. The networking effectiveness and content quality were particularly appreciated, with participants highlighting the excellent organization, and valuable professional connections made during the gathering. Through meaningful dialogue sessions, attendees were able to recount their professional experiences, share creative insights, and identify collaborative prospects. The inspiring accounts of career milestones, challenges conquered, and the profound influence of their alma mater on their professional development provided valuable guidance and encouragement to both existing students and alumni peers.

